Adrienne Wilkinson, the actress who plays Livia/Eve (Xena's daughter) on the show Xena: Warrior Princess, visited Shawna Pedego's drama students Dec. 22.

Wilkinson talked to the students about acting, the television industry, and shooting a popular television show. Even though school was canceled that day due to bad weather, several students still came in to meet the actress and hear what she had to say.

She spoke for about an hour, answered questions and stayed to pose for pictures with the students and sign autographs.
